THE GIRL IN THE BOX

THE BARBARA MACKLE KIDNAPPING

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 4 AT 6 P.M.

This program is free and open to the public. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

Barbara Mackle, the daughter of Florida land developer Robert Mackle (who helped build the cities of Port Charlotte and North Port), was kidnapped and held captive inside a box for 83 hours in 1968.

Mackle was eventually rescued and her kidnapper was apprehended by a Charlotte County Sheriff on Hog Island. This remarkable story—which spawned two television movies—is told through a series of dramatic monologues with various individuals portraying key figures in this famous kidnapping.
